

Melanie Rydalch

Regional Human Resources Manager – Basic American Foods - Biography - Melanie Rydalch started her Human Resources career in 1997 while completing her Masters of Science in Human Resources Training and Development. She has been a Human Resources Manager at Gallo Glass in Modesto, California and her most recent assignment is the Regional Human Resources Manager at Basic American Foods in Blackfoot, Idaho. She has also been a Training and Development Manager and is passionate about leadership development and continuous learning. She completed her Senior Professional Human Resources (SPHR) certification through the Society of Human Resource Management, and believes reading a minimum of six developmental books a year is necessary for any leader.